Experiential Learning

Experiential learning (Ex L) is the process of learning through experience, and is more narrowly defined as "learning through reflection on doing". Experiential learning is often used synonymously with the term "experiential education", but while experiential education is a broader philosophy of education, experiential learning considers the individual learning process

As a part of Experiential learning, Second Year MBA students visited Aroghyaan Trekking Camp is located in the scenic and lush forests of Nagalapuram in Andhra Pradesh, known for its pristine surroundings, hilly terrains. It's approximately 70 km from Chennai and about 100 km from Tirupati, making it a popular destination for trekkers and nature lovers from nearby cities.

Total students of 43 Along with 2 professors visited the Aroghyaan trekking camp. The entire group guided by our faculty started from the college at 10:30 AM on 13th sept 2024 and reached camp at 3:45 PM. It came to an end at 11:30 AM on 14th sept 2024.

As students of management studies, our students learnt about the coordination, team work and various process involved in team building activities. Mr. Suresh Ramakrishnan and Mr. Anbarasan trainers of the camp gave information about the camping, trekking and also taught how to overcome the difficult situations.

On day 1 Separate teams were formed and tasks were conducted to build confidence and team building. Every one of them actively participated.
